(EMAILWIRE.COM, May 08, 2009) Lutz, FL -- Now in its 16th year, the Sawgrass Village Art Festival (May 16 & 17, 2009 from 10am-5pm both days) is one of the South's premier juried art competitions, attracting fine artists locally, regionally and nationally and thousands of visitors. Admission is free and it is open to the public.

Activities, as well as shopping, can be found at the Festival this year. There will be Artists Demos throughout the weekend and child crafts and face painting at the KinderCare Kids Korner. Local High Schools will also be exhibiting their artwork.

Among the Fine Art exhibitors is BIMS Bangles, specializing in one-of-a-kind, hand fabricated fine art jewelry. Using only the finest gemstones, lampwork beads and sterling silver, BIMS Bangles creates truly original keep sake bracelets, earrings and necklaces. View their fine work online at www.bimsbangles.com.

A special line of one-of-a-kind creations, Critter Care, features dogs, cats and fish with 10% of the proceeds being donated to a No Kill Shelter, Pet Pals, in St. Petersburg, Florida.

The festival will include first-class watercolors, oils, glass, pastels, drawings, clay, photography, wood, acrylics, fiber, graphics, metal, paper and mixed media fine arts and crafts, great food, fun and children's activities.

Art Show Location:
Sawgrass Village Shopping Center

About BIMS Bangles

BIMS is a mother/daughter artisan team specializing in one-of-kind hand fabricated jewelry. Each item is signed by the artist so you can be assured you have purchased an original BIMS Bangles. Chelsea Pavloff is the principal artist, and she makes sure every design is a ONE-OF-A-KIND (OOAK) work of art worthy to be named a BIMS Bangle. Afterall, BIMS is an acronym for her daughters; Britni, Isabella, Mackenzie & Sarah!
